

ErgoFusion Gaming Chair Basic

Item no.:

640-97

EAN:

The Sandberg ErgoFusion Gaming Chair Basic combines simplicity, quality and comfort. The S-shaped backrest made of a breathable mesh ensures an optimal seating position for hours of office work or gaming. The padded armrests are comfortable and can easily be adjusted into position simply by pulling them. For a more reclined seating position, simply tilt the backrest backwards and lock it in the desired position. The comfortable headrest can also be adjusted to the height and angle you prefer. The deep and balanced chair ensures optimal seating comfort. The chair is constructed from solid quality materials that are built to last, to which our 5-year warranty attests.
