HyperX Pulsefire Fuse Wireless Gaming Mouse (Black)

VERSATILE, FUNCTIONAL, ACCESSIBLE

The HyperX Pulsefire Fuse features a sleek, ambidextrous design with Microline grip textured panels, seamlessly blending comfort and control. With a lightweight frame of only 75g, including the battery, it's engineered for a responsive and agile feel, allowing for extended gaming sessions with reduced fatigue. With Pulsefire Fuse, you can enjoy up to 85 hours[1] of uninterrupted gaming on a single AAA battery. It offers customizable DPI presets up to 12,000 and dual wireless connectivity options - 2.4GHz or Bluetooth- for versatile performance. HyperX NGENUITY software allows you to tailor DPI levels, RGB[2] settings, and button assignments, to ensure that you play your way. With its lightweight build and long-lasting battery performance, HyperX Pulsefire Fuse guarantees that you can game comfortably and consistently without compromise.

Key features

Designed for Comfort, Built for Control

The Pulsefire Fuse is designed for comfort in any situation. The smooth contours of the ambidextrous frame and Microline grip textured panels provide control while maintaining comfort.

Up to 85 hours[1] of Play with a Single AAA

Powered by one AAA alkaline battery, the Pulsefire Fuse can provide up to 85 hours[1] of comfortable gaming performance.

Dual Wireless Connectivity Modes

Pulsefire Fuse connects with confidence using the highspeed 2.4GHz wireless dongle or via Bluetooth mode with compatible devices. Play your way.

Lightweight 75g Structure

The lightweight structure of the Pulsefire Fuse keeps your gaming sessions light and airy. Weighing only 75 grams with the AAA battery installed, you can game longer with less fatigue.

Customizable DPI Presets up to 12k

Easily change the operating resolution with the conveniently located DPI switch and get more with NGENUITY by setting precise custom levels up to 12,000 DPI.

Easy Customization with NGENUITY Software

Set custom DPI levels up to 12k, adjust RGB[2] colors and patterns, and reassign up-to 5 mouse buttons. Make your Pulsefire Fuse ready for any situation with HyperX NGENUITY software.
