Description

The Cat 8.1 RJ45 Shielded Plug is designed for high-performance networking applications, offering exceptional speed, durability, and signal integrity. Engineered to support 40Gbps data transmission and frequencies up to 2000MHz, this plug ensures ultra-fast and stable connections for data centers, enterprise networks, gaming setups, and home automation.

Its shielded design effectively minimizes electromagnetic interference (EMI) and crosstalk, delivering superior performance in high-density networking environments. The gold-plated contacts enhance conductivity and resist corrosion, ensuring long-lasting reliability.
