ICY BOX IB-4013MCL-C4 USB4® Docking & CloneStation (1:3 clone) for 4x M.2 NVMe SSD

1:3 cloning and performance

The IB-4013MCL-C4 features a 1:3 cloning function, allowing one M.2 NVMe SSD to be duplicated onto three other SSDs simultaneously. This feature greatly increases the speed of data copying tasks and also reduces the chance of mishandling errors. It is particularly valuable in data management, especially in work environments where accurate data transfer is extremely important.

Easy SSD installation

The toolless design features a magnetic suction cover for easy SSD installation and removal, eliminating the need for extra tools or complicated procedures. This allows users to handle their SSDs with ease, without requiring technical experience. It also makes the device suitable for casual users who need a quick SSD cloning solution.

Durable design with cooling fan

The IB-4013MCL-C4 is built with aluminium, offering both stylish looks and increased durability. When operating with four SSDs, the metal body provides excellent heat dissipation, especially during long sessions. Additionally, the IB-4013MCL-C4 features a built-in fan that actively cools the SSDs, preventing overheating and potential damage.
