Ideal for sports

Sandberg Headlamp 500 Duo is your flexible companion in the dark. The swivel head on the lamp allows you to use it both as a headlamp and as a handheld flashlight – perfect when you need both hands free and a handheld light source. With a rechargeable battery and a bright 500 Lumen LED light, you always have reliable lighting at your fingertips. The lamp has 5 light settings and the option for red light, while the lightweight headband provides a comfortable fit during extended use. The water-resistant IP44 construction makes it perfect for outdoor work, camping, or running in light rain. Charge it via USB and be ready for any adventure.
