Features

40mm neodymium drivers

Looking to enjoy richer, more detailed sound from your headset? Ultra-compact yet incredibly strong, our 40mm neodymium drivers generate an incredibly powerful magnetic field. The impressive end results are subtler vocal shadings and richer bass responses that add unexpected new dimensions to tunes you thought you knew inside out.

Echo and noise reduction

Noise isolation cushions

Fully adjustable headband

Over-ear leather cushions

Your Philips headset comes complete with soft leather over-ear cushions which hug the contours of your ears so effortlessly and securely you'll soon forget you have them on! You won't only enjoy a totally comfortable wearing experience regardless of the shape of your head but also an incredibly effective seal. What more immersive way to lose yourself in hour-after-hour of music totally free of distraction.
