

OMEN by HP Outpost Mousepad

Lead the charge. Charge up. Level up.

Designed for all gamers, OMEN Outpost adapts to your play style with a reversible anti-fray mat with hard and soft sides. Charge your wireless mouse and other devices with built-in Qi wireless charging.

Qi Wireless charging

Place the OMEN Photon and other Qi enabled wireless devices, such as your smart phone, on the charging area for stable and easy charging – all without wires or ports.

Full 5W charging power

While plugged in, this mousepad charges your devices easily with 5 watts of charging power. The OMEN Photon can be fully charged in up to 2.5 hours.<sup>1</sup>

Featuring

Reversible mat with hard and soft sides

Choose from a hard or soft anti-fray mat and play at your best. The soft mat provides precise control for low DPI players, while the hard mat delivers smooth movements for high DPI players.

Independent charging area

Charge devices while you play – with an independent, Qi enabled charging area above the actual mousepad.

RGB LED lighting

Bring your battle station together with up to 16.8 million RGB LED color combinations, all programmable through the OMEN Command Center.

Ideal surface from edge-to-edge

Both mat sides deliver a consistent surface texture, which optimizes mouse sensor performance across all areas of the mousepad.
