Product Description

Years of research have led to the Nanobloc Universal Webcam Cover for Camera-Enabled Devices. Attaches using unique nano-suction cups that stick to your device with no adhesives. Designed to easily enable and disable your webcam by simply peeling and moving. To refresh stickiness, simply rinse with water and let dry. Works on any device including phones, laptops, monitors, and tablets. Three covers per pack.

Features

- Discrete black circles work on all devices, blending in with your phone, laptop, monitor, or tablet.
- Whether at home or the office, feel confidently protected knowing that no one is watching you through your webcam.
- Peel and stick to open and close your webcam. Nano-suction technology lets you use Nanobloc over and over, with no gunky residue. To refresh stickiness, simply rinse with water and let dry.
- Convenient three-pack for all your devices. Use on any screen with a webcam.
