EAN:

Sandberg Conference Kit PTZ Pro, is the complete package for professional audio and video on your online video conferences, suited for conference rooms up to 8-10 persons. You get a motor driven webcam with marvelous 10x optical zoom, smoothly able to turn and tilt in order to give you the perfect angle. The included wireless Speakerphone Pro provides you crystal clear audio with no echo. Both the speaker and microphone are in the same unit, providing a flexible audio solution with no cable clutter around it, offering an elegant placement in the middle of the conference table. It is all very easy to set up, by standard USB connections and easily controlled by the included wireless remote control. The camera can simply be placed on a table or mounted on the wall (wall mount bracket included). Compatible with all video chat applications.
