

All-In-1 Display Adapter Hub

Código de producto:

509-21

EAN:

Sandberg All-In-1 Display Adapter Hub gives you an elegant solution for the conference room, making it possible for all guests to connect their laptop to the projector no matter the type of video output port. By the button on the hub you can easily switch between the 4 input options. Further there is an adapter for micro-HDMI included. If a longer HDMI cable than the built-in is needed, an HDMI female to female coupler is also included allowing you to plug in another HDMI cable or plug in the HDMI-cable from a ceiling-mounted projector.
