Sandberg Bluetooth Headset ANC FlexMic, is an advanced wireless headset, that thanks to its elegant over-ear earcups are very comfortable to wear even for many hours. The built-in ANC function (Active-Noise-Cancellation), ensures you a fantastic and undisturbed audio experience, no matter if you are in the middle of a hectic office, or are traveling by plane or train. The detachable, flexible microphone-arm, provides optimal voice recording well suited for your online meetings, gaming, and IP telephony. Even without the microphone-arm mounted, the built-in microphone discretely ensures that you are heard well when speaking to others through your headset. The built-in battery is easily and universally recharged by USB, and gives you 13 hours work time on one charge.
